Dandruff Gone

Parisian Sage Drove It all Away in Two Weeks

If people who have dandruff only knew that it is caused by garms and that these germs are slowly but surely sapping the hair root of its very life they would hasten to destroy the garms and remove every trace of dandruff as soon as possible.

Parisian Sage (now sold all over America) is rigidly guaranteed to ban-ish dandruff, stop falling hair and itch-ing scalp in two weeks, or money back. It is a delightful hair dressing that prevents baldness; puts life and luster into any persons hair.

Large bottle 50 cents at Stanfield's drug store, 632 Kansas Ave., and druggists everywhere. "My hair was falling out badly, until "My hair was failing out badly, until the became quite thin on the top of my head. After using Parisian Sage a short time it stopped the hair from failing, and also removed the dandruff, and stopped the fitching, and now there is new hair growing which is about one inch long. I am $5 years old."—Mrs. M. G. Boynton, Mansfield Center, Conn.

HE FAINTS IN COURT.

Camorrist Priest Collapses as Result of Self Imposed Fast.

Viterbo, Italy, April 7.—Again today the trial of the Camorrists was inter-rupted when Ciro Vitozzi, the accused priest, weakened by a self imposed fast, fainted. He was under interrogation and had worked himself into such a state of mental and physical exhaustion that he tumbled against the steel bars of the prisoners' cage. Lawyers and carabineers rushed to his assistance and in the confusion Presi-dent Blanchi declared the sitting suspended. At the same time the court ordered Vitozzi to break his fast with the yolks of half a dozen eggs.

The climax came opportunely for Vitozzi following his declaration that he had abstained from food for 48 hours. He had been telling a story of his al-leged persecution in prison and the recital was not without dramatic effect.
"With me in my cell," said the priest I had a lock of hair from the head of that holy soul, my mother. This was taken from me on the order of a magistrate, who insisted that the hair was that of some woman companion of mine. What nonsense. Why it was even gray. Can any one imagine a greater profanation."

Here the accused man invoked the soul of his reather to support of his soul of his mother in support of his statement and the recollection of what he described as the insults to her meinory overwhelming him, he was seized with a fit of weeping. Between his sobs he cried out:

"I have been fasting for 48 hours, supported during my whole interrogation by divine power," with the words be collegeed. he collapsed

Giovanni Rapi was not present when the trial was resumed this morning. His physician certified that he was suffering from a sore throat as a result of having "cried too much during his in-terrogation."

The proceedings opened with the re-call of Vitozzi. The prisoner described attempts which he said had been made to make him appear guilty of com-plicity in the murder of Gennaro Cuoccolo and his wife. While he was in prison he said he was confronted with man who offered him $20 to denounce certain persons as guilty of the Cuoc-colo assassination, adding that if it was necessary he would send the priest to America as Erricone had been sent. Vitozzi said he did not know the man who approached him and whose name as given was fictitious.

The prisoner told of the alleged abuse of him by the examining judges during his preliminary examination and while he was in prison. Judge Detilla, as said, had insulted him, calling him "a Camerist nig."

Camorrist pig." "This," said Vitozzi, "was cowardly, savage and inhuman, while the judge ought to represent honesty."

AMUSEMENTS.

All roads theatrical will lead to the Grand tomorrow, matinee and night, the date set for the first appearance in this city of that laughable and sensationally successful French importation. "The Girl in the Taxi," which comes with the enviable reputation of being one of the greatest entertainments con-corted for the purpose of enjoyment ever produced on any stage. Paris and Bertie and Mignon in "The Girl in the Taxi" at the Grand Saturday.

Berlin greeted it as the climax to all fun-making plays witnessed in those cities in years; New York and Chicago theater goers would not permit it to deattendance and box office receipts known in those cities for farce produc-lons. Boston praised it in the most flattering terms and turned out to applaud its laughable situations for hearly six months. Actors of the best reputations as comedians of the first be seen when the piece makes its bow for local approval.

The public is assured of one fact when spending their money to see a show by negroes. It has the snap and vim seldom if ever seen in a white company. Negro entertainers have a style of their own that always amuses. The attraction at the Grand, Monday, April 10, consists of a large company of singers, dancers and musical comedy stars, headed by J. Leubrie Hill in a new vehicle, "My Friend From Dixie."

Miss Estelle Thebaud, handsome and florid as Carmen herself in most of her impersonations, has a role in "Madame Sherry," "Pepita" is the name of the character. "Pepita" is a Spanish girl, and with a Spanish girl's traditional privileges when in love is very much so. In "Madame Sherry" her sweetheart is fickle, and for some time the poor swain is kept busy keep-ing free from "Pepita's" jealous ven-geance. But jealous rage when sung in a musical piece isn't the fearsome thing it is melodrama, and report says Miss Thebaud arouses many a laugh wher satire. "Madame Sherry" returns Tuesday at the Grand.
